It is anticipated that the survey will be distributed to stakeholders by June 30, 2016. • “Justice for All” segment on the Citizens Commission on Police Accountability was completed by Metro Television. Next segment will focus on public education and public awareness related to domestic violence, including a short segment on the Interpersonal Protective Order (IPO)/Emergency Protective Order (EPO) Process.
II. Major Justice Initiatives/Strategic Priorities	Status
Jail Policy Committee (July 19, 2016)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In response to the recent surge in the number of inmates housed by the Louisville Metro Department of Corrections (LMDC), the Jail Policy Committee met on May 5th to provide an emergency briefing on the status of the jail population and the required activation of the LMPD Third Floor Unit. During the briefing, likely contributing factors to the population increase were identified and possible action items were suggested. The possible action items will be placed on the agenda for the July 19, 2016 meeting of the Jail Policy Committee for formal review, discussion and approval.
Laura and John Arnold Foundation (LJAF) Pretrial Demo Site	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Memorandum of Understanding between the Laura and John Arnold Foundation and the MCJC Board Members for the Pretrial Demonstration Project expired on May 15, 2016. Although the formal agreement expired, a number local projects are still in process including the Felony Case Processing Pilot; Jail Population Management Dashboard; Barcode e-Citation; and Criminal Justice Data Warehouse. A final Report-Out session with the Mayor may be scheduled in early summer. • MCJC staff continue to participate on DoIT Xjail Tiger Team to address necessary modifications in Xjail that impact the dashboard. Based on technology challenges related to the dashboard and concerns that the existing platform may not permit the necessary enhancements to support the warehouse, MCJC applied for and were selected to participate in the GovLab Academy Coaching Program for Data Driven Criminal Justice Projects. The coaching program, sponsored by the Laura and John Arnold Foundation, is a first-of-its-kind online convening of jurisdictions working on empirically-based criminal justice innovation projects. Coaches will assist the Louisville Team with refining and identifying options for building a criminal justice data warehouse. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • MCJC and IT staff met with representatives from Denver, Colorado in Louisville on May 16- 17, 2016 to kick off a cross-jurisdictional data-sharing project to enhance jail population management efforts. The two counties are similar in size and demographics, and both are in the forefront of using data to inform corrections operations. During the two-day “hackathon,” staff from both counties, along with an engineer from Code for America’s Safety and Justice Team, explored the similarities and differences between their respective processes and data and jointly agreed upon a format and mechanism for data sharing. The future goal is to establish a linkage between the two dashboards.

Dual Diagnosis Cross-Functional Team (DDCFT)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • DDCFT Community Care Management Network Pilot to launch June 15, 2016 with three “familiar faces” entered into HMIS for information sharing and case coordination. • DDCFT Task Groups--CCMN Operational Protocols Task Group developed a training agenda for HMIS users/frontline service providers in preparation for launch of CCMN Pilot. On May 27, 2016, the Coalition for the Homeless, in partnership with the MCJC, hosted a training for 22 frontline workers. The Public Safety Protocols Work Group is in process of developing a range of options and alternate resources that can be used by community first responders on an immediate basis to divert appropriate individuals away from the jail or emergency room. Based on local interest in adapting the LEAD model to Louisville, the DDCFT is in process of designing a local LEAD Pilot to provide an additional pre-booking diversion pathway for law enforcement officers to refer low-level drug users to community-based treatment and support services. Funding for a LEAD Pilot was requested by MCJC in the FY 16/17 Metro Government budget process. The Public Safety Protocols Work Group is also working with LMEMS on development of EMS diversion protocols for alternate transports. • DDCFT has been highlighted as a part of Louisville Metro’s participation in the Innovative Communities and Data-Driven Justice Initiative launched by the White House. The initiative provides a national network for sharing information on data exchanges and creative local approaches that target the needs of high system utilizers and individuals detained on a pretrial basis due to inability to make bail. • MCJC in partnership with DDCFT partners submitted a proposal to the Bureau of Justice Assistance Justice and Mental Health Collaboration Grant Program to implement a triage center/law enforcement diversion program. • DDCFT provided a letter of support to partner with the VERA Institute of Justice on a grant proposal it recently submitted to the Bureau of Justice Assistance Encouraging Innovation: Field-Initiated Program.
